ATTENTION! FLEET MANAGERS

Your Patron Saint. Not Big Brother.

As Fleet manager, you've had the mandated installation of Electronic Logging Devices added to your job list. Our first job was to look at ELD's in every imaginable way. Because somewhere in there lies the dramatic difference that will set us apart and above. Every good product has it. And every good developer finds it. And we did. We discovered that other ELD's are Android/Google based, exposing your data, routes, client locations, etc. Ultrack's Electronic Logging Device alone uses Windows 10 Enterprise to store your data. Securely.
