

2023 is the Year to Lead Strategic Growth

Peer-to-Peer Healthcare Leadership Forums Focus on Rapid Impact Strategic Growth

ST. LOUIS, MO, USA, January 31, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Strategic decisions that were put on “pause” during the height of the pandemic are back on the table in 2023. Today’s unprecedented margin pressure, staffing shortages, and escalating competition require urgent focus on strategic growth in the “now and near.” Leaders are challenged to rapidly recover strategic business now, which positions - and pays for future initiatives that will sustain their competitive advantage and financial health far into the future.

As part of their mission to help organizations hardwire a data-driven, collaborative culture of strategic growth, Tiller-Hewitt HealthCare Strategies continues to partner with experienced leaders from dozens of health systems and healthcare organizations across the nation. In 2023, they will build on the Leadership Series of peer-to-peer podcasts, webinar and strategic growth solutions. Topics will focus on how to prioritize and execute initiatives proven to drive rapid impact strategic growth through intentional, transparent engagement with their staff, physicians, community, payers and even competitors.

“This is the year when leaders will be challenged to make urgent - yet strategic - decisions about what to do and - equally important - what not to do,” said CEO Tammy Tiller-Hewitt. “By tapping into our leadership forums, they have access to gloves-off insights, boots-on-the-ground advice and practical solutions.”

Tiller-Hewitt HealthCare Strategies is recognized nationwide for 21 years of experience delivering rapid impact strategic growth and measurable results for hundreds of organizations nationwide. Through their leadership resources, the healthcare industry has access to insights and experience on a full spectrum of leadership topics via a series of webinars and podcasts.
