Named after the counties they serve; Hocking Athens Perry Community Action (HAPCAP) is one of 50 Community Action Agencies in Ohio. HAPCAP focuses on community development, housing, transportation, food and nutrition, child development, and utilities. HAPCAP's goal is to provide the basic needs for an individual to live.. They believe that locals are the most knowledgeable to address problems in their neighborhoods which leads them to their mission of empowering people and communities through advocacy and quality services.
