

Love Your Neighbor NOLA Provides Hope and Support to Communities in Need

Serving New Orleans communities since 2021

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES , February 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nadia Sanchez, founder of Love Your Neighbor NOLA, lost her mother to violence in New Orleans. Through tragedy Sanchez and her family were inspired to give something that every community needs, love.

Founded in 2021, Love Your Neighbor NOLA's mission is to disrupt cycles of community violence. Love Your Neighbor NOLA's top priorities are meeting the community's basic needs by providing education, resources, and mentoring opportunities.

"The most rewarding part of the work that I do is being able to share love and hope with people who otherwise feel forgotten." She said, "helping the community we work with provides the unique opportunity to help without exception and to show people that even the worst storms in life can come but when you have a firm foundation and a community to help you through it, you can withstand it," Sanchez said,
