We assembled an elite group of women recognized for their leadership commitment to diversity and inclusion, and remarkable impact in our world.”

Dr. Lisa Lindsay Wicker

The Career Mastered Diversity IMPACT 50 honorees will be recognized during the Career Mastered National Women's History Diversity Summit & Leadership Awards event held on March 14-16, in Atlanta, Georgia. The Career Mastered editors, advisory board, and strategic partners compiled and assessed a national group of women for the Diversity IMPACT 50 List based on their contributions to the advancement of diversity and inclusion over the past year. Women selected are those who are playing their part to make an impactful difference in the world after the global pandemic has forced so many to reassess the way they work and live. Our 2023 List features women who embody this year's theme – IMPACT: I'm Still Standing. Each honoree is a respected leader in her field with an inspiring story of challenge, triumph, and positive impact fueled by their commitment to creating an inclusive environment where people are valued for their differences. Sponsors of the 2023 Diversity IMPACT 50 Awards Ceremony includes Mercedes-Benz-USA, Walgreens, JP Morgan Chase, Ally Financial, Lowes Companies Inc., Food Lion, New York Life Insurance, Amazon, ITC Holdings, The Hartford, Stopit Solutions, Minority Executive Search, Henry Ford Health, Fifth Third Bank, KeepWOL, Primax Properties, among others.
