NYF's Creativity From The Other Side Host David Sable Interviews Bianca Guimarães

NEW YORK, NEW YORK , USA , February 1, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New York Festivals Advertising Awards® are now open for entries for the 2023 competition.

NYF's Advertising Awards kicks off the 2023 competition with new categories crafted to showcase future forward campaigns emanating from emerging creative lanes within the industry today.

For 2023, New York Festivals has recruited Bianca Guimarães, Partner/Executive Creative Director at Mischief as Executive Jury President. Celebrated within the industry as a creative maverick with a reputation for risk-taking work, Bianca will chair the 2023 Executive Jury panel. The appointment of this award-winning creative rebel at the helm ensures that the face-to-face Executive Jury sessions will be led with an atmosphere of creative collaboration and thoughtful examination.

During her tenure at BBDO, Bianca was behind the powerful Emmy-winning "Back-to-School Essentials" Sandy Hook Promise. Known for culture-creating work, she was one of the creative minds behind Thinx's first national TV commercial "MENstruation" that reframes menstruation and "The Epidemic", a campaign in which Bianca worked-hand-in-hand with Monica Lewinsky, exposes the tragic unseen epidemic of cyberbullying.

During the summer of 2020, at the height of the pandemic, Bianca exited BBDO to launch a new creative agency. She joined Mischief as a founding partner and Executive Creative Director, within a few months her work made global noise with prominent campaigns.

With more than 100 international awards to her name and three Emmy nominations, her achievements include industry honors from prominent media outlets. She was most recently recognized as one of Campaign US “Female Frontier honorees” and listed as one of Ad Age’s 2021 Leading Women. In 2012, 2014, 2015, and 2016 Bianca was named one of Business Insider’s “30 Most Creative People in Advertising Under 30” as well as earning a spot on the Adweek “Creative 100” list, and The Drum’s “50 Under 30”.

“New York Festivals is thrilled that Bianca is on board as Executive Jury President. As a member of the Executive Jury in 2022, her standout creative experience and perspective was truly an asset. As 2023’s Jury President, Bianca’s leadership style will foster an atmosphere of collaboration and thoughtful deliberate discussions,” said Scott Rose, President, New York Festivals Advertising Competitions. “Bianca’s creative vision is globally recognized, and her disruptive wide-ranging ideas coupled with her deep understanding of culture challenges the norm and consistently delivers provocative work for prominent brands.”

“The best work in the world is what brought me to New York City, and the best work in the world keeps me here today. There's something about the spirit of a true new yorker and the hurdles people are faced to overcome to make it here. That grit, determination and inspiration are reflected in the winning work at this festival. That's why I'm so excited to be judging. That, and the fact that now I guess I can say I'm an official New Yorker.”— Bianca Guimarães, ECD and Partner at Mischief
