

Robert C. "Burr" Johnson Named Partner at Pike & Lustig Personal Injury and Business Litigation Firm

WEST PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, February 2, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pike & Lustig, LLP is pleased to announce that Robert C. "Burr" Johnson has been named a partner in the firm. Johnson's practice area focuses on catastrophic injury cases and complex business disputes throughout the State of Florida.

Since joining Pike & Lustig in 2018, Johnson has been responsible for some of the most significant trial verdicts throughout the State of Florida. This includes what is believed to be the largest wrongful death jury verdict in the history of Palm Beach County. Johnson's recent trial verdicts include:

- $80.0 Million – Palm Beach County.
- $23.9 Million – Broward County.
- $10.4 Million – Broward County.
- $7.6 Million – Pasco County.
- $2.9 Million – Spokane, WA.

Prior to joining the Firm, Robert was a prosecutor with the Palm Beach County State Attorney's Office, where he fought to protect our local citizens who had been the victims of serious crimes. Robert prosecuted approximately 50 jury trials to verdict, including many high-profile matters. He handled thousands of cases while at the State Attorney's Office, including attempted murders, sex crimes, and crimes involving firearms and gang members.

Johnson is the fourth generation in his family to practice law in Palm Beach County. His great-
