

IRF Roundtable Pakistan Delegation Meets With Co-Chair of IRF Summit

WASHINGTON DC, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, UNITED STATES, February 3, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The IRF Roundtable delegation from Pakistan, led by the IRF Roundtable Chair for Pakistan, Anila Ali, had an exclusive meeting with Dr. Katrina Lantos Swett, IRF Summit Co-Chair and the President of the Lantos Foundation for Human Rights at the two-day Summit in Washington DC.

The meeting was attended by Roundtable members from Karachi and Lahore. Father James Channon, represented the Lahore Christian community and Dr. Seemab Asif represented the Karachi Christian community. Muhammad Kashif Mirza, human rights activist, and minority and transgender activists, shared his insights. The group agreed that the Roundtables provide the minorities, civil society, clergy, and government to come together and find innovative solutions to problems and promote trust and good-will building. The group expressed their desire to continue these efforts on a regular basis and lauded Anila Ali's efforts in establishing the Roundtables at a time when Pakistan is facing many challenges.

The IRF Roundtable Pakistan chair spoke at the IRF Breakout session about developing and promoting IRF in Pakistan. "Pakistan was formed on the basis of religious freedom." explained Ali to the audience. The talk was led by a fruitful discuss with participants.
