Cannabis Travel Association International (CTAI) has announced its virtual Cannabis Travel World Fair will feature visits to Cannabis Destinations and Experiences around the world.

The event, scheduled for Tuesday, February 7 and Wednesday, February 8 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. PST each day, will include presentations directed to cannabis and/or travel professionals who want to learn about the cannabis travel landscape. CTAI members and partners include major cannabis brands, tour operators, retailers, transportation companies, hotels, tourism boards, industry associations, media companies, and other organizations for whom cannabis tourism advocacy is important.

Ali Fakhri, CEO of EventHi and Events Chair of CTAI reflected that "So many virtual events are predominantly talking heads. We have major Subject Matter Experts involved to share their knowledge about cannabis and its relationship to tourism. Most exciting are the virtual experiences we've incorporated throughout the two day event." One of the virtual tours will be by Keiko Beatie of Coral Cove Wellness Resort. Coral Cove guests take full advantage of a customized approach to their vacation that can incorporate wellness, meditation, educational workshops, and spiritual guidance complemented by optional herbal therapeutics, cannabis-centered spa rituals, classes, and workshops. A 4 day/3 night stay at the Jamaican property will be the grand prize in a wheel spin at the end of the event. (Participant must be present to win). Among other experiences attendees may expect are a visit to the "OG" of cannabis destinations, Bulldog Café Amsterdam, Moonlit Moveable Feast - High Dining, Uruguay's YVY Cannabis Wellness Centre . The Beach Samui in Thailand, and a Cannabis Bud Bar from Emerald Farm Tours. Some sponsors for the Cannabis Travel World Fair include EventHi, Tokeativity, and Emerald Village.
