Over 500 participants eagerly signed up to learn from the experts and make informed decisions about their investment portfolios. ## Funds Take a Leap Among the Golden Visa Investment Options

Murat Coskun, a way-wise fund investment advisor and managing partner at the leading fund advisory firm Get Golden Visa, shared that the number of investors choosing the fund option for their Portugal Golden Visa was under 10% before 2020. However, in 2021, these percentages skyrocketed to 65%.

American Investors Make a Hefty Appearance in the Golden Visa Fund Scene

Coskun goes on to report that another notable trend was the growing number of American clients. Prior to the pandemic, there were very few American investors. However, in 2021, out of the 27 nationalities they served, over 25% were American. And in 2022, the percentage of American applicants continued to rise, reaching almost 50%.
