The whipped topping market refers to the market for whipped cream products, which are used as toppings for desserts, beverages, and other food items. The market is segmented by product type, including dairy-based whipped toppings and non-dairy whipped toppings. The market is driven by factors such as increasing demand for convenient and ready-to-use food products, rising consumption of desserts and bakery products, and growing health concerns leading to an increase in the demand for non-dairy alternatives. The market is also influenced by trends such as natural and organic ingredients, and an increase in vegan and lactose-intolerant consumers.
