

The Crisis Management & Emergency Response Planning training was successfully completed by SmartLynx Airlines

21 delegates from SmartLynx Airlines completed the Crisis Management and Emergency Response Planning training

SOFIA, BULGARIA, February 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sofema Aviation Services (SAS) www.sassofia.com is pleased to share that 21 delegates from SmartLynx Airlines completed the Crisis Management and Emergency Response Planning training.

The course was carried out as a webinar by the experienced SAS instructor Elin Lambrev on 11-13 January 2023.

What was the training about?

This course aims to provide the delegates with an understanding of Emergency Response Process engagement. During the training, they will consider all phases of the ERP Process, ERP coordination across the business, and the Roles & Responsibilities within the Crises Management Centre. They will also learn how to develop and manage Emergency Preparedness Documentation. After completing the course, the participants will be able to Gap Analyse the emergency planning function of their organisation & will gain awareness of which areas require an emergency response checklist.
