

East View Coffee Roasting Company is keeping the teachers at Brass Elementary fueled with as much coffee as they need Local public teachers deserve our support! We are committed to providing all the coffee needed at the local elementary school, Brass Community School.

KENOSHA, WI, UNITED STATES, February 6, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --"Our local public teachers deserve our support. East View has committed to providing the teachers with all the coffee they need for their teachers' lounges at the local elementary school, Brass Community School," said Jenny Ulbricht, founder, and head coffee roaster at East View Coffee.

East View Coffee Company roasts small batches of ethical coffee that tastes great and does good.

environmentally conscious business. It's a woman-owned business serving the area with wholesale and direct-toconsumer hand-roasted specialty coffee. East View's Powering the Good™ program is a vital part of the company's mission and vision for the local area. It involves donating one dollar's worth of coffee to non-profit community partners whenever a bag of coffee is sold. Today, East View Coffee is excited to announce its newest Kenosha community partner: Brass Community School.

Having Brass join us as a community partner means we provide all the coffee that the teachers need + new coffee makers in the two teachers' lounges. The teachers and staff at Brass won't have to provide their coffee and receive all the freshly roasted coffee they need to be delivered weekly. The amount of time, love, and dedication that Brass's staff gives to the school community makes it one of a kind. "East View's Coffee puts a smile on my face and helps me prepare for the day." Kindergarten Teacher, S. Gordon

For Powering the Good, Ulbricht delivers the donated coffee to our partners who are already doing good work in the community. These organizations were chosen for social impact.
