Any new driver seeking to obtain a learner's license who is at least 15 years old can take the Class E Knowledge Test, commonly known as the "written test", at Cantor's Driving School. Students must have completed the Florida Traffic Law and Substance Abuse Education \(TLSAE\) course; Cantor's Driving School also offers this online TLSAE course. The cost for this Class E Knowledge testing service is $60. The test is offered Monday – Friday, 10 AM to 4 PM. Walk-ins are welcome, or call 954-740-1103 to make an appointment and avoid waiting.

The Class E Knowledge Test consists of 50 multiple-choice questions about Florida traffic laws, safe driving practices and identifying traffic controls. A score of 80%, or 40 correct answers, is required to pass the exam. Immediately after the test is completed, the results are sent to the FLHSMV, and a paper copy of the test results are provided that can be taken to a Tax Collector's office or FLHSMV service center to get the Florida learner's permit and get photo taken.

Owner Frank Cantor comments: "This new Class E Knowledge testing service is fast and convenient for students who want to get going on getting their learner's license and don't want to wait to take the exam at a state office."
