

Apple Cider Vinegar Market to See Huge Growth by 2030: The Kraft Heinz Company, Aspell, PepsiCo

Consistent increase in health-conscious consumers in developing economies is a significant factor driving global apple cider vinegar market revenue growth

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA, February 7, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The global apple cider vinegar market size was USD 868.1 billion in 2021 and is expected to register a revenue CAGR of 5.6% during the forecast period, according to latest analysis by Emergen Research. Market revenue growth is primarily driven by increase in health conscious consumers in developing economies as it offers natural cures for many illnesses. In addition, specialists around the world assert that apple vinegar aids in digestion and reduces blood glucose spikes and even those looking for a weight loss solution find it helpful. According to Harvard Health research, one of the health topics with fastest-growing Google searches is apple vinegar weight loss plan. Such situations benefit market growth because some consumers prefer to research products before consuming them, which drives market revenue growth.

Apple Cider Vinegar Market Size – USD 868.1 Million in 2021, Market Growth – at a CAGR of 5.6%, Market Trends – Rising awareness and shift in consumption pattern of consumers”

Emergen Research

Apple cider vinegar is expected to register significant market revenue growth during the forecast period. This is owing to the fact that apple cider vinegar has incredible potential outside of typical streams. Industry leaders in the market are venturing into dietary supplements, personal care products, and medications as customers prefer natural components in cosmetics and personal care products. Long-term consumption of apple cider vinegar is detrimental to health and would restrain market expansion. Numerous research has demonstrated advantages of using apple cider vinegar. Furthermore, it is suggested that
