

Carl Moellenberg's Story: Broadway and Spirituality as a Path to Survival—Amazon # 1 Best Seller

13-time Tony Award winner Carl Moellenberg has hit the top in #broadway, musicals, health, spirituality, and ~20 other categories on Amazon Best Seller List

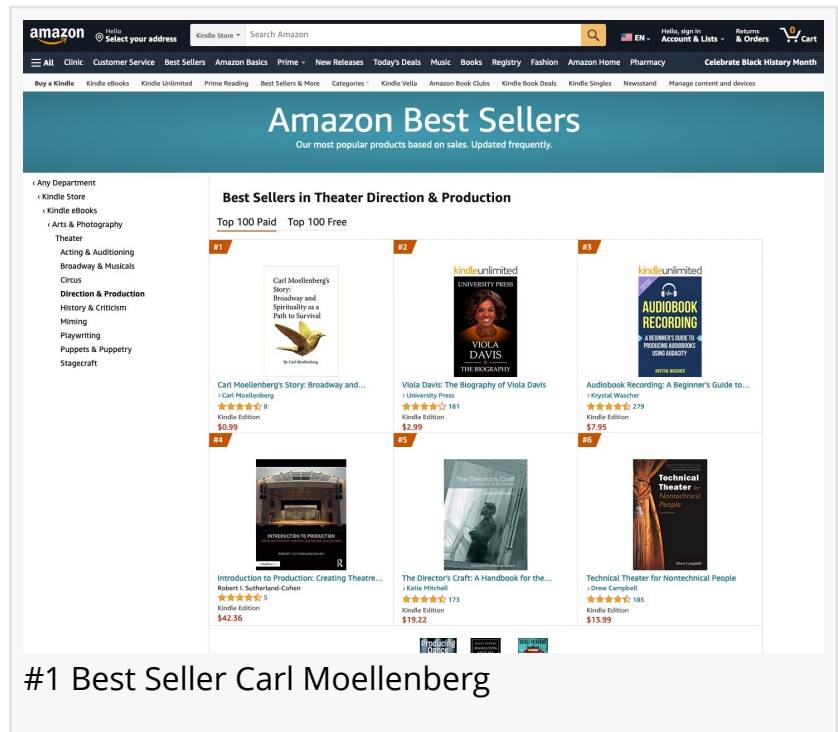

NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, February 8, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tony Award-winning producer Carl Moellenberg's Story, Broadway and Spirituality as a Path to Survival, is a number 1 hit.

In a life full of dramatic ups and downs, today is an up for Carl.

Moellenberg's story is one of overcoming enormous obstacles and changing course to find his passion and true self to live joyously as a long-term survivor. It is a journey of many transformations: from Midwestern boy to a fast-paced Wall Street career; from investment banking to becoming a 13-time Tony Award-winner on Broadway; from overcoming several death-defying crises by finding healing, inspiration from a higher being, and deeper spirituality.

Moellenberg hopes his story will inspire others who face seemingly overwhelming obstacles to find their passion, reason to live and to find love.

Transitioning from the Mid Northwest to the world of NYC financial institutions for 19 years was a big enough move for Carl, but little did he know his biggest transitions were still ahead of him. A combination of passion for music, serious health issues, and a spiritual awakening caused him to jettison that life for producing theater on Broadway. Since that most joyful life-changing decision, he has now produced over 70 shows worldwide and won 13 Tony awards. His incredible path was accomplished despite multiple threats to his survival which were warded off by his passion for Broadway, newfound healing practices, spirituality, and love.

A NOTE FROM THE AUTHOR

"For many years, I've had wonderful friends who were constantly prodding me to write a story about my life. I don't view anything about myself as extraordinary. I also know so many people are dealing with debilitating health issues, as I have been for over 40 years. My friends believe I might be able to provide inspiration to others by sharing my personal journey. These experiences have created the person I am today. This is my life story—one of resilience, transformation, perseverance, surviving, adapting, healing, spirituality, love, faith, finding my passion, and realizing dreams. It is a story about facing daunting obstacles head-on and not losing hope."

BIOGRAPHY

Carl Moellenberg grew up in Ohio, where his interests included classical piano, singing, and sports. A graduate of Denison University, he graduated co-valedictorian with majors in economics and math. He later received his MBA at the University of Chicago in Finance with the highest honors. Moving to NYC in 1976 as an investment banker, Carl would spend the next 19 years in financial analysis, consulting, planning, M&A, and corporate finance services at leading banks. After a successful career in banking, Carl journeyed to pursue his new major interest in spiritual healing. This practice taught him to calm his mind and balance himself—skills necessary for recovering from life-threatening opportunistic illnesses.

It was during this time that Carl had the opportunity to reflect on and listen to words from a higher being regarding where his life was going to take him next; Broadway, which saved his life.

Returning to New York, he studied at the Commercial Theatre Institute, where he gained mentors and partners who propelled him into theater production. Carl turned what started out as a hobby into a true passion as part of the producing team for some of the biggest hits in recent Broadway history: Spring Awakening, War Horse, Hair, Death of a Salesman, Pippin, All the Way, The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, Dear Evan Hansen, Angels in America, The Band’s Visit, Oklahoma, Hadestown and Company. His aim has always been to tell compelling stories or to present stunning music which transforms people.

Carl’s best-seller status comes just days ahead of the Queen’s Six performance run at The Town Hall, NYC—a show two years in the making. This remarkable group sang at Prince Harry and Duchess of Sussex Meghan Markle’s wedding. Most recently, as part of the St. George’s Choir,
