

iUrban Teen Presents: Snowshoes on Deck 2023

Underserved Black, Latino, Indigenous, and Pacific Islander Students set to explore features of Mount St. Helens

SEATTLE, WA, USA, February 8, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- On Sunday,

March 19, iUrban Teen will host an outdoor excursion at the Ape Caves with the Mount St. Helens Institute.

Teens will experience an immersive winter adventure learning about the forests and lava features of Mount St.

Helens. Together, they will explore the way that volcanic landscapes change over time and the phenomena of lava tube caves.

Snowshoes, trekking poles, and microspikes (if snowshoes are not needed) will be provided free of charge for the approximately eight hour trek. If requested in advance, items that can be provided include: rain jackets, rain pants, hats, gloves, and handwarmers.

This outdoor excursion supports social emotional learning, team building and group bonding for teens ages 14-18 from historically underserved backgrounds.
