Pacific Immigration Service Announces the Launching of a Virtual Immigration Assistance Service

STOCKTON, CA, UNITED STATES, February 9, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pacific Immigration Services announced the launching of a virtual service that makes it easier than ever before for immigrants in 50 states to affordable immigration services: Clients can get immigration paperwork done from the comfort of their home.

“We are continually looking for ways to make it easier for immigrants and their families to have access to quality service at an affordable cost. There is a huge need out there for this underserved community. With this launch we will be able to offer help to every corner of America” Amy Tan

Pacific Immigration Services, a decade-old immigration consulting firm in Stockton, CA today introduced the Virtual Immigration Assistance Program. This launching gives immigrants across the U.S. and their families easy access to qualified help with immigration filing, from the comfort of their homes.

Virtual Immigration Assistance

Customers received their citizenship or immigration documents approved

Pacific Immigration Services office

Program purposes to bring a real, experienced, and dedicated immigration specialist to each client via the simple support of electronic devices. An immigration specialist will be available to talk via a video call/meeting or a phone call and be able to assist the client with his or her immigration filing. Those who are not tech-savvy still can do it. Everything will then be processed quickly and delivered to home. Customer service is available all the way until the immigrants or the sponsors and their families receive what they need.
