Jason has held several Quality leadership positions within Medical Device companies, and most recently was a Senior Director with Siemens Digital Industries Software, where he led many collaborative initiatives with the FDA, advancing the quality and regulatory sciences for the industry. Jason commented, "While at Siemens, I partnered with CG, the FDA, MDIC, and many customers for several years. I was always impressed with CG's culture, people, execution, and focus on the customer experience. I am very excited to join Compliance Group Inc, as it provides an opportunity to accelerate and scale collaboration with Regulatory Agencies and Manufacturers, to remove barriers and clarify misperceptions that have been hampering the speed of innovation and improvement. This is a chance to have real impact in providing better healthcare solutions.”

Khaled Moussally, EVP of Clients and Regulatory Relations, commented, “His record of accomplishment in dealing with diverse responsibilities to drive improvement and accelerate overall business growth, will be an additional strength and tremendous asset to Compliance Group Inc. We look forward to the remarkable things we will accomplish together with Jason’s creativity, experience and leadership.”
