

WeCare tlc to open expanded Healthcare Center in Huntsville

New healthcare center to provide cost-effective primary care options for local businesses

HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA, UNITED STATES, February 9, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A new locally run healthcare center is set to open this spring at Bridge Street Town Centre in Huntsville, Alabama, providing cost-effective primary care for local businesses and their employees.

We are on a mission to transform how healthcare is delivered."

Raegan Le Douaron, President and CEO of WeCare tlc

As a leader in implementing and managing onsite health centers around the country, WeCare tlc will manage the Health & Wellness Center of Huntsville and work with employers to provide quality, coordinated, patient-centric healthcare for their employees. The center's anchor tenant, Dynetics, is an information technology company with more than 3,500 employees headquartered in Huntsville.

"We've been proud to be part of the Huntsville community for six years, and we're just getting started," said Raegan Le Douaron, President and CEO of WeCare tlc. "We're excited to see more growth and opportunities develop in the Huntsville market as we partner with more local employers to improve the health of their employees."

The center will feature a 5,017 square-foot facility at the Bridge Street Town Centre at 365 The Bridge Street, Suite 106, with a capacity for 10 exam rooms.

Qualified and trusted professionals at the new center will provide primary healthcare services, including wellness check-ups, disease management, onsite prescription drug dispensaries, lab work, and other diagnostics. The expansion is slated for completion in late spring 2023.

"We are on a mission to transform how healthcare is delivered," Le Douaron said. "At our centers, we rely on excellent personal service as well as cutting edge data and information to provide outstanding care and better outcomes for our patients."
