"We're thrilled to welcome Deb to the Sequentur team as Chief Revenue Officer," said Roman Gruzdev, CEO of Sequentur. "Deb has more than two decades of experience, including 17 years at Nortec Communications, and an impressive track record of generating new revenue streams in an ever-changing technology environment."

Before joining Sequentur, Wiker held positions at Nortec Communications, most recently as Vice President of Sales, where she increased existing and established new revenue streams for commercial and federal accounts. Prior to her time at Nortec, Wiker held sales positions at the Washington Post and AT&T.

"I'm excited to be joining Sequentur at a time of unprecedented growth for the company," said Deb Wiker. "Sequentur has a strong reputation as an industry leader, partnering with clients to consistently deliver for them. I'm excited to be joining such an engaged team and thriving organization."
