I am thrilled to have the opportunity to weave Beatrice Bradley Experience Travel into the Family. We want to empower like-minded women to EMBRACE ADVENTURE AND BE FEARLESS, LEARN TO LIVE AGAIN!”

Kim Kalan - Founder

The brand, Beatrice Bradley, is based on the relationship of Debra Countryman Shutt and Beatrice (Belle Baker) Bradley, her grandmother. Bea's strong will and fearless adventurer spirit helped Debra develop into a business entrepreneur.

Debra built a sourcing and design company and embarked on a career which included a great deal of business travel.

Constantly packing & unpacking a suitcase, Debra visited production vendors on several continents and enjoyed cultural experiences from sea to mountain top and many small villages in-between. Embracing the landscapes, the people, the food and all the adventures that travel brings, Debra had the experience of a lifetime! Having an encouraging husband and understanding children, she wove a tapestry of travel, business and family into one big continuing adventure.

Now, a little older and much wiser, Debra is thrilled to have the opportunity to weave Beatrice Bradley into a travel adventure company offered by Gage Outdoors. Together we want to help you and your friends experience the outdoors, the excitement of travel and life's special moments exploring new places and meeting new friends.

Debra Shutt is a lifelong friend of founder Kim Kalan and co-founded the company. She is currently in the role of head of international experiences.

Beatrice Bradley Experience Travel is more than a solo-travel company “We are changing women’s lives teaching them to learn to live again to have laugh until your belly hurts fun” Kim Kalan – Founder Review: If you like to travel but have no one to travel with, consider Beatrice Bradley Experience Travel. I went on my first trip this summer and had a blast. I meet new friends and had a fun adventure. On the BB Experience Travel trips, you will go on great tours, eat at wonderful restaurants, and visiting the local sites. All the while you are making new friends and experiencing new adventures.

You will find that you will be comfortable within hours once you arrive and you will cry when the adventure is over. I have been on three trips and each was filled with fun and excitement. Sign up! You won’t regret it!!!

Review: So happy I took the opportunity to try Beatrice Bradley. Amazing from start to finish. The house hosts were wonderful and took care of everything. I would definitely do this again. In fact, I’m thinking about Minnesota and I’ve got my down payment for Southern Ireland. This isn’t traveling solo per say until you meet up with all the other ladies that are also joining the adventure of a lifetime. Take adventure as you will not be disappointed. Thank you for providing a safe and adventurous place where women can meet other women from all around the world.

Review: Fulfilling a dream of visiting Cuba. Traveling 'alone' safely with a group of dynamic women. BB is great way to travel 'alone' safely with other women who have similar interests. Trip teams are small and provide great travel experience. Recommend BB to all women who love to travel.

Review: Wonderful people! The coffee plantation tour was very informative and we learned about the animals and the seasons of Costa Rica.

Traveling with a fantastic group of women and having everything taken care of for me. The accommodations were excellent. The food was excellent. Debra is AMAZING!!!!!! This was my first trip with Beatrice Bradley but it won't be my last!! What an adventure in Costa Rica. The accommodations, food, and excursions were first rate. The best part was meeting other women who were such a joy to be with. I'm already planning my next adventure.
