"Our Star Light Star Bright Gala will be a celebration to remember," said Gala Chairs Linda and Ralph Behmoiras. "We are thrilled to be honoring our exceptional Cantor Magda Fishman for her extraordinary contributions to our synagogue and the wider community. She is truly a shining star!"

Cantor Magda Fishman is a gifted and dedicated musician who devotes her life to the service of her community. With a powerful and expressive voice, she leads congregants in prayer and song, inspiring them to connect with their faith and tradition. Her passion for Jewish music is palpable in every performance, and she works tirelessly to preserve and promote the rich heritage of the cantorial art form.

At the Star Light Star Bright Gala, B'nai Torah Congregation will also introduce the Inaugural Melanie Jacobson Inspirational Jewish Leadership Award. The first recipient of this prestigious new award is Nancy Goldstein, who served as the first director of B'nai Torah's Ruth & Edward

"B'nai Torah members have so much to be proud of," added Rabbi David Steinhardt, Senior Rabbi at B'nai Torah Congregation. "We have great culture, music, art, adult learning and support systems. We have programming for both our children and elderly. Annually we all come together to celebrate at the annual gala. This year we are celebrating our Cantor Magda Fishman, who brings incredible beauty and a spirit that has added so much to what we are and who we are."
