Car Tyre Market

The car tyre market refers to the industry that produces and sells tyres for cars, SUVs, and light trucks. This market includes a wide range of products, from standard all-season tyres to specialized tyres for high-performance or off-road vehicles. The market is driven by factors such as the increasing demand for vehicles, the need for replacement tyres, and advancements in tyre technology, such as the development of run-flat and self-sealing tyres. However, the market is also influenced by factors such as raw material prices, changing consumer preferences, and environmental concerns related to tyre disposal. The market is highly competitive, with numerous global and regional players competing for market share.
