Darryl Davis, CSP

The 2023 class of Real Estate Newsmakers honors just over 310 industry members, including Davis, who earned a spot on the list for the fourth straight year.

In 2022, Davis offered free weekly real estate training webinars to help agents navigate market shifts and discover new and empowering ways to serve clients. 2022 also brought Davis both membership growth and internal growth, allowing him to expand his dynamic team of committed professionals. He also developed and planned the first of the company's Next Level Real Estate Training Events and Conferences, which launched in January of 2023, to tremendous attendee response and acclaim.

"The most rewarding part of what I do is to help real estate professionals move from where they are to where they want to be," says Davis. "To give them the tools and teach them the skills they need to meet whatever the world throws their way with more confidence and less stress. To empower leaders to empower their teams to serve vs. sell so that they can build careers with more joy, purpose, and repeatable, reliable results. My company and I have a commitment to change the perception people have of real estate agents, from salespeople to service professionals committed to client care. Why? Because real estate agents don't just help people buy and sell real estate; they help buyers and sellers get to their Next Level® in life."
