"We know members of the Chiefs' organization already vacation at the lake and appreciate everything the area has to offer," said Alhonna's owner Aaron McArdle. "With our prime location and many amenities, we think our resort is the perfect place for players to unwind after such an amazing season."

The historic resort, which is celebrating its 70th anniversary, was the inspiration for the Blue Cat Lodge featured in the popular Netflix series, Ozark. Screenwriter Bill Dubuque grew up in St. Louis and spent his summers working there in the 1980s.

Members of the team can contact Alhonna directly to book their trip. And for those who aren't football stars, there are also special deals currently available including a Winter Weekday Special with 2 nights and get a third night free package as well as Weekend Relaxation Get-Away package for $199 per person that includes a $20 gift certificate to the resort's Blue Cat Lounge.
