ORLANDO, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, February 16, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cardiovascular Associates of America (CVAUSA) announced today that Lori VanderBoegh is appointed to

“

Bringing Lori and a full physician recruiting infrastructure in-house is a strategic decision. CVAUSA is armed to provide innovative approaches to physician recruiting-a necessity for our platform.”

Suzette Jackie, chief operating officer, CVAUSA

Director, Provider Recruitment, effective immediately. With more than 20 years of healthcare experience, Lori contributes great knowledge and learnings to CVAUSA in her newly designated position. She has a particular focus on physician search in specialty hospitals and private equity portfolio companies. Lori focuses on creating collaborative, partner relationships to engage top clinical talent.

“An increase of patients in the growing 65+ demographic, along with the current cardiologist shortage will continue to present challenges in Cardiology Recruiting for 2023,” said Lori VanderBoegh, director, provider recruitment,

CVAUSA. “We are excited to share the unique CVAUSA story with Physician candidates looking for an opportunity to be entrepreneurial in their medical career by joining one of our thriving and growing practices across the entire US.”

Prior to joining CVAUSA, Lori has worked and supported leadership in a for-profit National Specialty Hospital System and its portfolio companies since 2010. As a retained search consultant, Lori supported the talent strategy across the organization to build the leadership and physician pipelines across the enterprise of five hospitals, corporate headquarters, their consulting group, as well as other related ventures.

“Bringing Lori and a full physician recruiting infrastructure in-house is an easy strategic decision,” said Suzette Jaskie, COO, CVAUSA. “CVAUSA is now armed to provide superlative and innovative approaches to physician recruiting-a necessity for our platform.”
