FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Takozz Opens Brick and Mortar
Restaurant in St. Clair Square Mall

Takozz announced today that it has opened a brick and mortar location inside St. Clair Square Mall's food court.

This new location is an expansion of the Takozz food truck.

Takozz offers a Central Mexican menu. Entrees include street tacos, quesadillas, torta sandwiches, and quesadilla-birria tacos. Customers can choose their own protein fillings, including: adobada, al pastor, birria, pollo, or chorizo. Snacks include flan, chocolate flan, churros, and street corn. Takozz also sells kids meals and an array of beverages, including fresh Mexican waters like horchata, pineapple, and tamarind.

When you eat our food, it's like you're eating at our dinner table. These are the flavors of our families”

Ramon Garcia - Co Owner

“When you eat our food, it's like you're eating at our dinner table. These are the flavors of our families,” says Ramon Garcia, co-owner and operator of Takozz.

Garcia owns Takozz with his partner, Eduardo Herrera. Garcia manages business operations, and Herrera makes all of the food. After meeting through a mutual friend, Garcia and Herrera formed a long-time friendship filled with love and shared meals. When Garcia tasted Herrera's food, he was reminded of the flavors he grew up with in Central Mexico. Garcia asked Herrera to partner
