

Opal Group's Investment Education Symposium 2023

Connecting Institutional Investors with the Nation's Finest Investment Professionals!

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, February 21, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- At one of America's most iconic cities, Opal Group, in conjunction with the Louisiana Trustee Education Council (LATEC), hosted its annual Investment Education Symposium in New Orleans, Louisiana, on February 15-17. It provided comprehensive education and information on investing, fiduciary responsibility, and selection of money managers to the critical decision-makers and other representatives of the nation's most significant pension funds, endowments, foundations, and other institutional investors.

LATEC strives to empower its members, trustees, and administrators of pension funds with knowledge about their fiduciary duties through educational programs and networking opportunities. This is intended to ensure that trust assets are managed according to the relevant laws so they can effectively serve those who rely on them.

The Investment Education Symposium brought together top industry professionals from across the country for a unique opportunity for networking and learning. Attendees had access to expert panelists from traditional and alternative investment communities who manage some of their respective industries' most significant capital flows. The Symposium featured top-tier speakers representing Global firms like John Garcia, Founder & Managing Director & Sara Blackmer, Senior Partner, Solyco Capital; John Schroder, State Treasurer, State of Louisiana and
