This highly anticipated and engrossing documentary includes over 97

interviews with top hip-hop industry elites, friends, and closest family members of slain rapper Lil Snupe, who was 18 years old at the time of his death.

Since breaking into the filmmaking industry, Handy has made numerous connections and developed his portfolio with impressive artists such as Yella Beezy, Trap Boy Freddy, Runt Dawg and Naughty by Nature.

"The dream chaser came from nothing and made his mark on the world. Snupe shows the rest of us that if you want to do something you have to give it your all. He aspired to become a rapper and would not quit until he made his mark on the industry. This is the story of Lil Snupe and the people whose lives he touched.
