Baton Warehouse sells is their Smith & Wesson 21" Baton & Holder combination; Smith & Wesson batons are incredibly versatile, but are also made of strong materials and have a well-distributed weight. Baton Warehouse processes and delivers quickly, allowing customers to get back to their important work as soon as possible. An example of one of the products they sell that ships very quickly are Boston Leather sap impact weapons. Crafted from high-quality leather, Boston Leather sap impact weapons serve as highly effective self-defense tools. Though largely outdated in modern policing, saps make for excellent collector's items due to their unique construction. Comprising a durable, heavy-gauge leather cover, these weapons encase a molded lead weight with a spring steel shank, ensuring long-lasting durability and effectiveness. The Boston Leather Two-Ply Midget Sap is the perfect choice for collectors. Measuring at 6 3/4" in length and weighing only 9 1/2 ounces, it is the smallest and lightest model of sap available. Despite its size, this impact weapon is highly effective and can deliver a stopping force with minimal effort, thanks to the spring steel shank built into the handle. The two layers of durable, heavy gauge leather encasing the molded lead weight offer optimal protection and durability. Best of all, every Boston Leather sap is proudly made in the USA.

The company's expertise in the industry sets them apart from their competitors.
