

Rancho Cucamonga's 2023 Black History Month Proclamation Presented to Phillip E. Walker

California All American City Government Officially Recognizes our Nation's 2023 Black History Month Celebrations with a History Lesson Proclamation

RANCHO CUCAMONGA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, February 23, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A unique Proclamation was delivered to local artist / activist Phillip E. Walker-MFA at the latest Rancho Cucamonga Regular City Council Meeting on February 15, 2023. Opening with "WHEREAS, During Black History Month, we celebrate the many achievements and contributions made by African Americans to our economic, cultural, spiritual and political development" which leads to "NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, the City Council of the City of Rancho Cucamonga, California does hereby recognize February 2023 as National Black History Month", the 6 WHEREASES between these two statements in the Proclamation serve as a virtual history lesson about the creation of Black History Month, the effect that freed slaves had upon California's development and the universal purpose of Black History Month celebrations.

Found on the City of Rancho Cucamonga's Vimeo Channel, Mr. Walker's speaking during Public Communications at the previous Regular City Council Meeting on Wednesday, February 1, 2023 about hoping to see his City go on record in support of Black History Month, resulted first in City Councilwoman Kristine Scott presenting a City of

Walker Acting Retrospective Series (PEWARS) on the final day of public presentations at the historic San Giorio Winery and Events Venue, which on February 3, 2023 kicked off PhilE's (stage name) Black History Month Presentations 2023

California Statewide Tour.

The second result from Walker's 1st day of February request was this professionally researched City of Rancho Cucamonga 2023 Black History Month Proclamation, pictured first herein, which is displayed in the YouTube Video Clip embedded below of the Wednesday, February 15th Regular Council Meeting Black History Month 2023 Proclamation being read by Rancho Cucamonga Mayor L. Dennis Michael. This under 4 minutes in length Video Clip ends with the City of Rancho Cucamonga 2023 Black History Month Proclamation official printed document being delivered to Phillip by the entire Rancho Cucamonga City Council.

In that Video Clip this full-time employed Hollywood talent pronounces how proud he is to have his City's actions launch his 2023 California Statewide Tour of Black History Month Presentations.

Noting in this Press Release that this hometown Feb. 15 Proclamation issuing might represent the most important date during their Black History Month 2023 Statewide travels, the Walker's State Tour this month also included: a Feb. 4th Rancho Cucamonga 80th Birthday celebration of San Jose State University Professor Emeritus Dr. Ethel Pitts Walker, who co-founded with him the 45-year-old African American Drama Company traveling Black history theatre; the Feb. 7th Injustice U. N. G. Radio program interview of Phil by Johnnie Mae Green
