John Strasser is widely regarded as one of the world's preeminent master life coaches and coaching instructors. Harvard trained and ICF credentialed, he has completed advanced trainings while working with some of the most successful coaches in the industry. John has coached nearly 4000 hours and created a multitude of coaching programs, events, and experiences as well as The Insight Coaching Guiding Principles and the category of "Insight Coach." He has dedicated his life to service, spending two years volunteering on Marianne Williamson's team in New York and another three years speaking to inmates weekly at Rikers Island prison. Born with a yearning for spirituality, John has lived and studied in India and been back to the subcontinent thirteen times. Indian street food and overnight trains are his passion there. He has gone from living in homeless shelters to creating an incredible life and thriving coaching business focused entirely on service. If he can do it, so can you.
