communities by investing directly in local enrichment programs, Studio Express is designed to give participants an opportunity to cultivate real skills to prepare them for work in sound technology and production. Young participants have the opportunity to learn how to operate a music studio, add sound to media projects, record music, audio books, commercials and more.

According to the US Bureau of Labor Statistics, "Overall employment of broadcast, sound, and video technicians is projected to grow 10 percent from 2021 to 2031, faster than the average for all occupations." "At Studio Express, our aim is to create a pipeline that gives young creatives an opportunity to make audio engineering and music production an attainable career and business choice while simultaneously meeting 2K Foundations' goal to increase the number of audio professionals in the industry. This partnership and support from 2K position us to do both effectively." says, Tara Alexander, the program's Executive Director.

Studio Express' Community Launch and Open House will take place on Wednesday, February 22 at 3:00pm. Special guests include Ronnie 2K, a special performance by an emerging local artist and a tribute to the first cohort of Studio Express participants. The community is invited to be a part of the celebration which will also feature a tour of the music studio. Studio Express is located inside CS-145, a virtual production studio owned and operated by Cinema South. The address is 145 Robinson Drive in Fayetteville, GA. This event is free of charge and open to the public.

2K Foundations is the philanthropic arm of 2K that supports and inspires underserved communities by investing directly in local enrichment programs. 2K Foundations has grown its efforts to support a number of projects, representing communities around the globe and enhancing the program's expansion to include career and learning initiatives, increased access to sports through golf clinics and tournaments, community enrichment opportunities through music and upgraded studios, and much more. Recent projects include, 2K Foundations' first ever activation in Asia with court renovations in Tokyo, created alongside the Kevin Durant Charity Foundation and court renovations in Australia, Nigeria, Kenya, Spain, and Phoenix.

In coming years, 2K Foundations will continue supporting international projects and investing in local communities by renovating fields in partnership with world-class artists and athletes.
