Divorce professional to host private 30-minute consultations

COLUMBUS, OHIO, UNITED STATES, February 21, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ohio collaborative divorce attorney Nancy Sponseller is participating in the second annual Divorce With Respect Week March 6-10. Sponseller will be part of a nationwide effort to build awareness of Collaborative Divorce as a better way to untie the knot. Divorce With Respect Week is an opportunity for Ohio residents with questions about divorce to meet with an attorney, divorce coach or financial specialist to learn more about their divorce options at no cost.

"I'm excited to be a part of Divorce With Respect Week 2023 and provide free divorce consultations to individuals who may be considering a divorce," Nancy Sponseller said. "My goal is to promote the collaborative process as an alternative to litigated divorce while alleviating some of the fear, anxiety, anger and depression that often comes with the traditional divorce process."

Collaborative Divorce is a more peaceful process for resolving family law disputes where two parties work with lawyers, mental health professionals and financial coaches to craft their own divorce agreements that are based on their individual needs. Decisions are made by the couple without going to court or involving a judge or other third-party decision maker.
