

Payment links are becoming a popular B2B payment method, says OnlineCheckWriter.com

Businesses can enjoy the convenience of sharing their payment links without ever having to write a single line of code.

TYLER, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, February 22, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- An increasing number of US businesses are adopting payment links as a convenient method for receiving payments, according to OnlineCheckWriter.com, a leading b2b payments platform. Payment links provide a customizable and affordable way for businesses of all sizes to accept payments online quickly and flexibly. OnlineCheckWriter.com's Founder and CEO, Sabeer Nelli, explained that payment links are a payment method in which a merchant generates a payment request link and shares it with customers, allowing for swift and secure transactions.

OnlineCheckWriter.com's Payment Link feature is user-friendly and allows for easy link sharing through various channels, including SMS, email, and social media.

The platform offers multiple payment options, including ACH & direct deposit payments, wire transfers, checks, RTP, and more, and has recently added international payments in any currency and credit card payments without payee fees. With over 600,000 registered users and processing transactions worth over $40 billion, OnlineCheckWriter.com has emerged as a go-to platform for businesses due to its user-friendly interface and competitive pricing. The recent expansion into credit card payment services has further positioned the company for exponential growth in the future.
