

IDEX 2023 – Milanion NTGS and Streit Group Sign MOU to Market and Supply ALAKRAN to International Markets

ABU DHABI, UAE, February 22, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Milanion NTGS, through its UK entity, signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with UAE-based Streit Group to explore strategic opportunities to supply, market, and fulfil the growing interest in ALAKRAN, the lightest mobile mortar system in the world.

The agreement was signed by Julio Estrella, CEO of Milanion NTGS, and Ahmed Raza, Deputy Chairman of Streit Group at IDEX 2023, held at ADNEC, Abu Dhabi, where the ALAKRAN, integrated on two vehicles, is being showcased on Streit Groups stands (Outdoor: CP-219; Indoor: 12-A40).

Under the newly inked MoU, both companies commit to expanding their collaboration and establishing a framework for exploring potential opportunities in existing and new markets for rapidly deployable mobile fire support assets, namely ALAKRAN, tailored to local operational requirements.

ALAKRAN mobile mortar system is an effective, combat-proven system providing superior mobility, accuracy, speed, and high firepower on the battlefield. With automatic aiming and re-aiming functions, ALAKRAN provides 81/120 mm mortar capabilities while transmitting all recoil force to the ground. Its patented barrel cooling system allows for sustained firing, solving operational problems faced by current mortar carriers.

The system is user-friendly and can easily be integrated onto almost any 4x4 vehicle with the ability to adapt to all types of terrain including deserts, mud, snow, and forests, and is heliborne-capable due to its lightweight design.

Julio Estrella said “We look forward to expanding our working relationship with the Internationally renowned Streit Group, to unlock exciting business development opportunities. We are confident that leveraging the combined knowledge, experience and expertise of both companies will identify new markets for business.”
