Barbara Cole will be part of a nationwide effort to build awareness of Collaborative Divorce as a better way to untie the knot. "I'm excited to be a part of Divorce With Respect Week 2023 and interested in helping people learn about the collaborative process," Barbara Cole said. "My goal is to promote the collaborative process as an alternative to litigated divorce and help couples who are facing separation work towards a settlement that benefits everyone."

Collaborative Divorce is a more peaceful process for resolving family law disputes where two parties work with lawyers, mental health professionals and financial coaches to craft divorce agreements that are based on their individual needs. Decisions are made by the couple without going to court or involving a judge or other third-party decision maker. The Collaborative Divorce process, as advocated for by members of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals (IACP), has been nominated for the 2023 Nobel Peace Prize for transforming the way families resolve conflict.

Interested parties should visit divorcewithrespectweek.com to schedule a free 30-minute consultation with Barbara Cole.
