This book is a valuable resource for Christians looking to deepen their faith and achieve success in their personal and professional lives.

Joe Schuringa, author, The LifeWork Project

"For many years, I met people who truly disliked their jobs and were deeply unhappy with where they were in life and they just didn't know how to get out of the rut they were in," says author Joe Schuringa. "The worst part for me was watching so many Christians who were afraid to stand up for their faith in the workplace."

I wrote this book to help the Christian stand tall for Christ, and to experience job satisfaction so they too can say, 'Thank God for Monday morning!'"
