A QUEST FOR THE BEST

Here is background on this release. Many residents of Brownsville, McAllen, Pharr, Edinburg and other cities and towns in the Rio Grande Valley are intimidated by the insurance companies and legal system if they are the victim of an injury accident. They may not know their rights. They may not know the law. They may not know the business of insurance. Thus, in many cases, they give up their rights and miss an injury accident settlement because they do not fight for their rights. They often look for the best accident lawyer for their needs but give up. Fortunately, they new post by the Villarreal Law Firm helps them understand the law firm's philosophy of a quest for the best. The law firm works hard for each and every client to be not the best accident victim in an abstract sense, but the best in a client sense.
