“I believe that knowledge is power. It’s not always what you know, but what you don’t know that makes the difference between success and failure in your business,” says Sharifah Hardie. “Too often business owners and entrepreneurs face the unknown alone and the people in the know don’t want to share their secrets to success. Now, they can come hang out with me and we can change the world together in a fun, social, no-pressure environment!”

The subscription option, available for only $1.99 per month, provides subscribers with access to exclusive benefits. Subscribers will also receive a special badge displayed next to their comments on her posts and live videos. Moreover, subscribers will receive premier discounts on merchandise and other products that are only available to Sharifah Hardie subscribers.

Sharifah Hardie believes that the subscription option will offer a more personal and engaging experience with her. She says, "I am thrilled to offer this exclusive subscription option to my followers. This way, subscribers will have access to a community of like-minded individuals and be recognized as valued members of my community."

This new follower benefit is the newest addition to Ms. Hardie's commitment to assisting business owners and entrepreneurs as she sets off on the campaign trail for California State Senate District 33 in the 2024 Primary Election.
