The life care planning experts at Intercoastal Consulting & Life Care

Planning take a comprehensive approach to their work, considering both the qualitative and quantitative aspects of medical and quality of life needs for those who have been injured. Each life care plan is tailored to the individual's specific needs, taking into account the effects of the injury, chronic illness, or disability on their health and well-being, and providing a roadmap for optimizing their health and medical outcomes over their life expectancy.

The company provides both catastrophic and non-catastrophic lifecare plans, tailored to the individual's specific needs. For those with serious impairments such as spinal cord injuries, loss of limb, traumatic brain injury, severe burns, and blindness, a catastrophic life care plan may be necessary. For those with conditions such as disc herniations, soft-tissue injuries, spinal instability, and chronic pain, a non-catastrophic lifecare planner can help address their present and future medical needs. Life care plan reviews and rebuttals are also available as a Life Care Planner Expert throughout the United States.
