quality standards. PetDine sources more than 300 high-quality ingredients so all pet food, supplement and treat formulations are unique to each client. PetDine's leading customized pet products consist of liquid and powder supplements, soft chews, baked treats, kibble, and more.

ADM acquired a 75% ownership stake in PetDine in September 2021, and the new Windsor production expansion is overseen by Todd Davis, PetDine Operations Director for ADM's pet nutrition business. "Having additional infrastructure to support the current Windsor manufacturing plant will be highly beneficial for PetDine clients," said Davis. "We're excited to equip our teams with more space to bring greater efficiencies to our current, industry-leading manufacturing processes in Windsor, further enabling PetDine to help clients grow their innovative product lines and accelerate their time to market."
