

Mikisew Group and Inline Group Inc. announce partnership within Wood Buffalo Region

Mikisew Inline LP is the result of our dedication to building, growing and nurturing significant relationships with Indigenous groups across Canada.

FORT MCMURRAY, ALBERTA, CANADA, March 1, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mikisew Group, the business entity of the Mikisew Cree First Nation, announced its partnership with Inline Group Inc. and the development of Mikisew Inline LP. Under this partnership, 51 percent of Mikisew Inline LP is owned by Mikisew Group with the remaining 49 percent owned by Inline. This partnership will operate in the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo.

Mikisew Group provides valuable experience and industry reach in the local oil sands industry. Inline has been providing geomatics and geotechnical services to a wide range of industries across Canada since 2012 and will bring expertise and resources to Mikisew Group's expanding scope of technical service offerings. The economic development of this partnership will benefit the Mikisew Cree First Nation as a whole.

"We are excited to partner with Inline in the geotechnical field services, materials testing and surveying space," says Dan Gallagher, CEO at Mikisew Group. "The decision to partner with Inline was an easy one; Adam and his team have been providing services to many of our existing clients and partners over the years and have consistently demonstrated that they are best in class in this space. Partnering with Inline ensures we continue to provide long-term benefits back to the Nation through employment and distribution."
