Deadline to file Partnership Form 1065 - March 15, 2023

Deadline to file S-corporation Form 1120-S - March 15, 2023

Deadline for filing C-corporation Form 1120 - April 18, 2023

Deadline for filing Form 1040 for individual taxpayers - April 18, 2023

Businesses and individual taxpayers have the option to request an extension of time to complete their tax returns, the extension is automatic, and the IRS doesn't require any explanation or reasoning.

Businesses should file Form 7004, while individual taxpayers should use Form 4868 to request an extension. The extension must be requested on or before the original filing deadline of the tax return to ensure approval.

The e-filing deadline for certain information returns, such as Form 1099-MISC, ACA Form 1095-B/C, etc., is March 31, 2023. Businesses that need more time to file these forms must file extension Form 8809 on or before their original deadline. Approval of Form 8809 allows businesses an additional 30 days to complete and e-file their information returns.
