

Joe Gilliland's memoir about his life devoted to teaching

Being a teacher turned out to be Author Joe Gilliland's best life decision

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, March 2, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Some say that it's the unexpected things that shape one's life. A Teacher's Tale is a life memoir that consists of significant events in Joe Gilliland's unforeseen journey as a teacher.

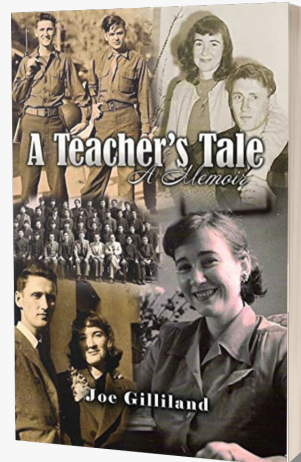

Joe never had plans in choosing teaching as a profession. In fact, it is the path he least expected he would take. But to his surprise, he developed an inexplicable love for teaching and his journey to get where he's at is narrated by Joe himself in A Teacher's Tale. This memoir covers the days when he was still a student trying to figure out what he's meant to pursue, and down to the very days when he became a successful and well-respected teacher.

Joe Gilliland traces back his experiences in this memoir, from his life as a student through apprenticeship, as a Japanese instructor for conversational English, and as a teaching assistant. All this led him to a life filled with happiness and fulfillment as a teacher. He also mentioned in his memoir the three people who have molded and inspired him to dedicate his life in the academe.

One of the book's readers, Jojo Maxon, recommends this book as she says "A Teacher's Tale by Joe Gilliland is a memoir that is told as if you are sitting right there in his house. The author had many moments when he could open the eyes of a new world to his students."
