

Promising Solutions Provides Fully Managed IT Services for Businesses in 15 Cities in LA County

Especially for small and mid-sized businesses, fully managed IT services are not only crucial but also much more cost-efficient.

GLENDAL, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, March 2, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- There are fully managed IT services for businesses, and there are fully managed IT services for small and mid-sized businesses. There is a difference!

It is also the Promising Solutions advantage and competitive edge.

“Fully managed IT services for small and mid-sized businesses is much more specialized and customized,” explains the personable and focused Ari Movsesian, owner of Promising Solutions, providing efficient, reliable, and important IT services for small and mid-sized businesses in LA County.

“It is more like personalized IT services. It’s key to keeping a small or mid-sized business running smoothly.

“Every company has its way of doing business and creating value and profitability,” he said. “For small and mid-sized businesses, prioritizing and putting effort into achieving organizational goals is important. Not trying to solve technology problems.”

It is where a customized range of IT services can make a difference. Fully Managed IT. Managed Cloud Backup. Managed Cloud Services. Managed Security Services. A remote Support & Helpdesk, and more.

Movsesian mentioned some other popular and in-demand, Promising Solutions IT services. “Especially with today’s remote work trends, Direct Access allows remote users to securely access internal network file shares, websites, and applications without connecting to a virtual private network.

“And Azure Site Recovery Services---the ultimate in high-availability, low downtime, and minimal disruption for uninterrupted access during a disaster.”

Not only does Promising Solutions help with small and mid-sized business efficiency and productivity by solving IT problems in 15 LA County cities---including Burbank, Glendale, Pasadena, North Hollywood, Van Nuys, Encino, Woodland Hills, Downtown LA, and Greater Los Angeles---the Promising Solutions IT services are also a matter of cost-efficiency.

“Because we specialize in Managed IT services for small and mid-sized businesses,” he pointed out, “the customized IT solutions happen for a fraction of the cost and overhead of having full-time IT staff on just-in-case standby.”
