VLink Team Receives the 2023 Best Places to Work in CT Award

Building a good work culture takes thoughtfulness!

Thanks to all our employees who made it possible in the VLink way: trust, collaboration & accountability.

Also, thanks to HBJ for this recognition!”

Sharad Patney, CEO VLink Inc.

The list is made up of 29 small to medium-sized businesses and 16 large companies. The Hartford Business Journal, which awards the companies says this year's nominees “have gone above and beyond to find creative, strategic, and safe ways to make work fun, inclusive and forward-thinking places for employees to thrive.”

All participating companies go through a two-part workplace assessment process. Part one of the assessment consisted of an employer questionnaire about satisfaction with company benefits, policies, and offerings, and part two of the assessment consisted of a confidential employee engagement and satisfaction survey. The average combined scores determined the top companies and the final rankings.

The Hartford Business Journal honored the winners during a banquet at Aqua Turf in Plantsville, CT on Thursday, March 2nd, 2023.

VLink's CEO, Sharad Patney said he is honored to have VLink recognized among the esteemed group of companies. Patney says, "Building a good work culture takes thoughtfulness! Thanks to all our employees who made it possible in "the VLink way": trust, collaboration & accountability.

Also, thanks to HBJ for this recognition - we truly appreciate it!"

VLinkers cited the company for its work-life balance policies, flexibility, employee growth, and bonding activities.

Patney reinforced that VLink works hard to maintain a balance and foster a positive atmosphere where employees can develop and succeed.
