Written by Colin Elmore, Cameron Jaymes, and Melissa Pierce, and produced by Grammy-nominated songwriters and producers Brian Bunn and Brian White, “Moonshine” is a song with danceable melodies, wrapped in a love story, that will entice audiences globally. Hailing from down under, Jayne says, “When I first heard

"Moonshine," I knew it was the perfect fit for me, and I could immediately hear exactly how I wanted to sing it."

The creative lyricism accompanied by Jayne's powerhouse vocals and Colt Ford's lyrical additions, 'Girl when I give you this kiss, like moonshine hitting your lips' makes this single a standout track with undeniable talent interwoven between an Aussie and American singer.

Colt Ford says, "Being featured on Jayne's new song 'Moonshine' is a true honor as well as bringing more of my music to the Australian country scene. Country roots run deep, and the spirit of the countryside can be found in every corner of the world, where hardworking and down-to-earth people come together to create community." The lyrics are a true representation of said talent, with classic country roots intermixed into the rendition and liquor theme of the record.

"I am not the type of artist to write many love songs, but when I heard "Moonshine," I knew if I was to write a love song, this was it," adds Jayne. Jayne continues to expand her artistic repertoire with this epic single collaboration involving overseas counterparts that marks one of the biggest milestones in her career.

To accompany the single release of "Moonshine," Jayne has partnered with Franklin County Distillery, located in the mountains of Virginia, known as the "Moonshine Capital of the World," to release her own line of two different flavored moonshines, Ridge Runner Pear and Orchard Peach.

Jayne's 5th album, Wanted, came out of the gate firing all the bullets, reaching No. 1 on the Aria Australian Country Album chart and No. 2 on the Air Australian Indie chart after Jimmy Barns.

The album also landed Jayne 2x Golden Guitar Awards for Female Artist of the Year, and Contemporary Album of the Year.
