BRIDGETOWN, BARBADOS, March 5, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- DolceOnDaBeat – the Barbados-based artist renowned for quickly climbing the music charts to become a top-rated hip-hop artist in the Caribbean – is pleased to announce his latest record, S.N.A.K.E.S., will drop on March 9.

A follow-up to his hit album No Internet, S.N.A.K.E.S. explores DolceOnDaBeat's changing landscape and all that he has encountered as a rising artist, from a fast-growing global fan base to changing personal relationships. The extended production features six tracks: "Seeing Signs," "Nobody Safe," "Ain't A Joke," "Karma," "Escaped (Hell & Back)," and "Shinning."

"I've been working on S.N.A.K.E.S. really since No Internet debuted and have wanted to share it with my fans for some time now," said DolceOnDaBeat. "In sharing details about my journey through music, I hope to inspire people all over the world to embrace their authentic selves. The EP's message is clear: Never forget where you come from and watch the people that you have around you in your circle at all times."

With his unique blend of Caribbean vibes and hip-hop beats, DolceOnDaBeat has become one of the region's most renowned artists. His previous album, No Internet, was critically acclaimed and broke records for the highest-charting hip-hop album by a Barbadian artist, and he was nominated for a WuhGineOn Award in 2022 as "Best Hip-Hop Artist."
